

Black Friday or Bleak Friday?

Holiday shopping sentiment 2023

Black Friday shoppers going cold turkey?

Black Friday has traditionally represented the frenzied start of the holiday shopping season. But with the proliferation of online shopping and extended sale periods, the majority of Americans plan to skip Black Friday this year. Is the frenzy of doorbuster deals and midnight store openings a relic of a bygone era?

This report delves into the disparate attitudes of Black Friday shoppers and abandoners, highlighting an emergent cynicism for the retail experience and value offered. We also leverage YouGov Profile's data to forecast holiday gifting trends and the media consumption habits of those who do plan to participate in Black Friday.

Finally, the report provides a quick peek into the 10% of Americans planning to shop Black Friday Deals for the first time in 2023.
